

Guampedia has arrived

After 5 years in the making the Guam Humanities Council unveiled the Guampedia website which was held at the Governor's House on April 10th .

The Guam Humanities Councils online encyclopedia is about the Pacific Island of Guam and its indigenous Chamorro people.

Guampedia exists to inform a global audience of the unique history, culture, environment and present-day society of Guam. The online encyclopedia seeks to provide a comprehensive, accessible, quality resource that will increase opportunities for greater understanding and knowledge of Guam by people everywhere.

You can visit there website at www.guampedia.com